Dale Borough - Incorporated 1891

Announcement

Congratulations River Dorn on becoming the newest Dale Borough Councilmember!!!

Also, congratulations to Lisa Howard and Dave Pundzak on their re-election!!!

Council Reminders

Residents' Safety

- Keep sidewalks and walkways free of snow and ice.
- Do not throw snow and ice into the streets or roadways.
- Do not direct water runoff from property into the streets or alleys. You could be held liable, if any accident occurs due to freezing.

Road Maintenance

Continue moving your cars on the designated days between 10:00 am - 2:00 pm; so the Dale Borough Road Crew can plow and clean the streets from curb to curb.

Parking

- Street parking spaces are at a minimum. If you have off street parking spots, please utilize them to free up parking on the streets for the residents who do not have off street parking.
- Parking on the sidewalks is prohibited in Dale Borough.

Moving In or Out

Please pick up the required Moving Permit at the Dale Borough Business Office and pay the $1.00 fee. Landlord(s), please advise your tenants of Ordinance #558. Penalties for non-compliance will be levied on both the landlord(s) and tenant(s). If you are selling your property (except for a Lot), please remember you must have a Pressure Test completed and pay a $75 fee to Dale Borough Municipality.

Trash & Junked, Abandoned or Uninspected Vehicles

- Ordinance #401 prohibits unregistered, junked, abandoned or uninspected vehicles within Dale Borough on public roads or private property.

- The Dale Borough Municipality highly recommends all households use trash containers not less than 10 gallons or more than 40 gallons which are made of durable, watertight, rust resistant material with handles and a close fitting lid.
- Please contact Pro Disposal at: 814-736-3631 about trash pick up.
